Democrats Pleased With the Result of the Convention at Lexington.

Beckham and Haly Present in the Role of Interested Spectators.

Democratic Congressional Candidates Are Sorry This Is Presidential Year.

FRANK M'GRATH FOILS BULLITT

The Democratic State convention held at Lexington Wednesday came off as scheduled, the programme of the Stanley-James combination being followed out to the letter, and it is believed that there were no new factional quarrels started over the proceedings. Of course the Beckham-Haly crowd did not approve of the action of the convention in any way and would have preferred a fight on the programme of the State leaders. It is rumored that Percy worked overtime the last month in seeking to stir up strife at the convention and had hoped that the dissatisfaction engendered by the passage of the Hutchcraft bill would serve in the progress of his plans. But without political pie at his disposal Haly is not a very formidable politician and only serves to prove the contention often made in these columns that Beckham's aide was a much overrated politician. In both the afternoon and evening proceedings there was but a few calls in large assemblage of Democrats for a speech from the junior Senator, and in the lobby of the Phoenix Hotel between the sessions of the convention Beckham stood almost unnoticed, and as a fitting climax Haly and Beckham left the hotel to ride to the convention in a homely "flyver," entering the hall without a single one of their former bodyguards to accompany them or herald their entry. Two prominent friends of the Haly-Beckham combination conspicuous at the convention were Dan O'Sullivan and Tommy Drewry.

There was very little interest in the proceedings of the convention, due to the fact that everyone present knew just who was going to be nominated, and the only real enthusiasm in the convention was during the speech of Gov. Stanley, which was a masterly address and well calculated to stir his hearers. It can not be denied but that Gov. Stanley created a good impression prior to and during the convention, his course of action being considered fair in every way, and credit must be given him for continued support of the candidacy of Gen. Haldeman for National Committee member, although the good impression created early in the action that it was an unpopular selection, but was duty bound through his promise of last year to carry out that pledge. Haldeman was seated as a delegate in the Fifth Congressional section of the convention hall, and his first appearance in the convention was when he placed Oscar Vest in nomination as Sergeant-at-Arms. Not a solitary delegate applauded any of his utterances and in that delegate body of nearly 500 men from Louisville, his home town, he appeared to be a stranger. This was very evident to the State leaders and they realized that their selection as National Committeemen will evoke no enthusiasm from Kentucky or even Louisville Democracy.

As expected, President Wilson was given an endorsement by the convention, but the delegates present realized that it would take more than words to carry this State for the Democratic nominee this fall, and even with a united party it will take some sterling work to save some of the Congressional nominees. There is not a single Democratic Kentucky Congressional candidate who doesn't wish that this wasn't a Presidential year, as each and every one is stronger than the President in his district. These men and their friends are hoping that Roosevelt is given the nomination by the Republican party, as they believe that he can be defeated by Wilson, but as for some other of the present Republican aspirants, they are in a doubtful mood as to success. Wilson's leniency in dealing with England on the opening of the mails question and his policy in Mexico has driven many Democrats into lukewarm support.

The Louisville delegation, led by Mayor Buschmeyer, Col. James P. Whallen and Frank McGrath, made a splendid showing, while other Democrats from Louisville now prominent in State politics were conspicuous in the convention, among them being Mack Pythian, Logan Rock and Charles Wright, and it is said with good authority that the first names will be chosen as Warden of the Frankfort Penitentiary before July 1, as there is a movement on foot to remove Warden Wells. Mack is especially popular with Louisville Democracy and he was the recipient of many congratulations.

Speaking of Louisville, the Fifth district convention in the Phoenix Hotel was featured by an amusing incident. On his selection as Chairman Frank McGrath stated that he prepared a lengthy speech, but as there might be lengthy business to transact he would postpone his address. County Attorney Scott Bullitt evidently doubted the Chairman's statement, and as soon as he was given a chance he delivered a flowery oratorical effort that it be the sense of the convention that

Mr. McGrath deliver or read the speech. The delegates carried this, whereupon but the Chairman met the issue with a skillful counter. After saying that he had met with an accident on the journey, breaking his eye glasses, he was unable to duplicate them at the five and ten cent emporium and would have Secretary McDonough read the speech, at the same time handing over a lengthy document. This was passing the buck with a vengeance, and while the Secretary was trying to get his bearings Col. Jim Whallen saved the day by moving to adjourn, his motion being adopted with a roar of laughter, and Chairman McGrath looked at Mr. Bullitt and said "foiled again."

IRELAND.

The news of the week from Ireland all comes through London, and that which would interest Irishmen in America has been carefully eliminated. In London official information was obtained Monday of the reports that a sentence of ten years in prison has been given in the case of Jeremiah C. Lynch, an American citizen, charged with having participated in the Irish rebellion. The American embassy received this information from the military authorities. Ambassador Pate also reported that John J. Kilgallon, of Long Island City, N. Y., whose father asked the State Department to intervene in his behalf, is interned at camp at Stafford, England. Mr. Pate said he hoped soon to secure Kilgallon's release.

According to the London Evening Standard, influences are working for a settlement of the Irish question by granting home rule at the earliest possible moment, with clear-cut exclusion of Ulster from the operations of home rule. In the interim, the newspaper says, the Premier may propose a temporary Government of Ireland by an advisory board consisting of Irishmen belonging to both parties.

Premier Asquith in the House of Commons Wednesday announced that the office of Viceroy of Ireland has been abolished, according to the Daily Express. Lord Wimborne, whose resignation as Lord Lieutenant has not yet been accepted, will be offered another post. The Daily News says that the scheme for the solution of the Irish problem which has received the largest support in the Cabinet is for an agreement between Irish leaders accepting the principle of separate Parliaments for Ulster and the rest of Ireland after the war. John McNeill, President of the Sinn Fein Volunteers, has been found guilty by a court-martial of complicity in the Irish rebellion. His sentence will be promulgated within a day or two. As bearing on his attitude toward the uprising John Dillon in the notable speech he delivered in the House of Commons May 12 declared that but for the action of McNeill, "who broke the back of the rebellion, the military would have been fighting still."

John McNeill, besides being President of the Sinn Fein Volunteers, was professor of law in the National University and was the organizer and Vice President of the Gaelic League.

Thursday the grand jury returned two true bills against Sir Roger Casement, leader of the Sinn Fein revolt, and Daniel J. Bailey, the former British soldier, who is held as his accomplice. His trial was set for June 26.

AMBASSADOR TO ENGLAND.

INTENTION FOR JUNE.

The general intention for June recommended by the Holy Father is devotion to the Blessed Sacrament. This devotion manifests itself in a fuller realization of our Lord's real presence in the sacrament of the altar. Who can reckon up the benefits that will surely accrue to the individual, to the family and to civil society if all of our Catholics become inflamed with love for the Blessed Sacrament? That is what we are to pray for and to promote by all the means in our power. Love for the Sacred Heart of Jesus and fidelity to the practices of the Apostleship of Prayer lead inevitably to a great increase in our devotion toward our Lord in the sacrament of his love.

SMOKER AND LECTURE.

The Holy Name Society of St. Louis Bertrand's church will entertain the men of that parish with a smoker and lecture Tuesday evening in Bertrand Hall, Hon. William C. Duffy to deliver the lecture, his subject being the new workmen's compensation law, which was passed at Frankfort during the recent session of the Legislature. There will be an excellent musical programme in addition to the lecture.

London Times Owner Claims to Control Seventeen American Dailies.

Many Others Have Felt the Insidious Yellow Weapon of England.

Clear Cut Summing Up of Eventualities on This Side of Water.

CRIMES AGAINST UNITED STATES

Lord Northcliffe, multimillionaire and owner of the London Times, in an interview stated that he controlled the policies of seventeen of the great daily newspapers of this nation. A large number of the remainder of the press of this country have no doubt felt the insidious yellow weapon of England and yielded to its persuasive force. But there are yet those of the press of this land who are true to American institutions and patriotically are too strongly entrenched to yield to the attack of British gold against their honor. The following comparison is a fine example of a clear-cut, unimpaired summing up of the eventualities on this side of the water to date:

The crimes committed against the United States by British agents under the direction of the British Government, and the sporadic lawlessness of the few ill-advised, bare-brained Germans. We have seen the English set fire to American houses for the purpose of abstracting valuable papers in the resulting confusion. Great Britain pilfered the mails of American citizens; not even the mails nor the telegraph are safe from the prying of English hirelings. They have spread corruption and bribery in order to further their unlawful ends. They have slandered our guests. They have debauched our laws. They compel American citizens to violate the Sherman act; they blackmail American bankers; they systematically strangle our commerce; they recruit their armies in the United States in brazen defiance of our statutes; they purchase American citizens to sail upon British vessels; they haul down the American flag on the high seas; they seize non-combatants sailing under the protection of the Star Spangled Banner. As a fitting climax of their influence, they sedulously sow the seed of treason in the hearts of American Tories.

In view of such crimes, persistently and systematically pursued, we blush to say, with the connivance of our Government, German "plots" for the invasion of America. In fact, it speaks for the law-abiding character of the Germans that these violations of American laws are so few. These men must listen to the constant abuse of their country. Their eyes helplessly behold cargoes of poisoned shrapnel shipped across the sea. They see American officials closing both eyes to English lawlessness on American soil. They witness open acts of war against the Central powers on the part of the administration. The administration is in the position of a woman who, having hopelessly compromised herself, makes nevertheless pretensions to virtue. Having violated our own neutrality, how can we blame these men if they violate our neutrality also? We must emphatically disapprove of such activities, but we can not refuse to grant mitigating circumstances to the little handful of German offenders whose indignation outruns their discretion while habitual British offenders, who have no such excuse, are welcomed to our bosoms.

INTERESTING

Account of Indiana's Hundred Years of Charity and Correctional Work.

FATHER FRANCIS GAVISK PRESIDENT OF NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF CHARITIES.

CATHOLICS SHOULD TAKE ACTIVE INTEREST IN INSTITUTIONS OF THIS STATE.

A THOUGHT IN THIS MATTER

At the recent meeting of the National Conference of Charities and Corrections in Indianapolis a booklet on the study of public charities and corrections was distributed among the delegates. It was written by Amos W. Butler, Secretary of the Board of State Charities. It is a very interesting account of the development of Indiana's efforts in the field of public charity and correctional endeavor during the one hundred years in particular that mark its existence as a State. The record of that Commonwealth in this respect is most enlightening, for it is a well known fact that it has been in the forefront in its public work since its inauguration. In 1795 outdoor relief was begun; in 1799 the poor were rented out to the lowest bidder! Today Indiana's administration of official outdoor relief is pointed to as the most efficient and satisfactory in the country. This is due to the laws passed since 1895, when the reform of relieving reports and other regulations, the total for relief of this form amounted to $355,255.59, and it has continued at that low total ever since, while the relief work has increased in efficiency. New Jersey, North Dakota and Massachusetts have followed this Indiana method of relief. Four hospitals for the insane, asylums for the blind and deaf, institutions for feeble-minded youth and feeble-minded women, for epileptics, a general hospital for the sick poor, orphanages under State supervision and State license are other developments of the public charitable work of the State. The correctional system has experienced a similar growth and progress, the latest addition being the State penal farm, opened in 1915. The poor asylums of Indiana, while in many instances deserving of improvement, stand ahead of those of the majority of our States.

PATRICK F. MCCARTHY.

The sudden death of Patrick F. McCarthy, which occurred at his home, 1272 South Floyd street, Friday morning of last week, came as a great shock to his many friends and acquaintances. Although slightly ailing for some time past his condition was not considered serious until he was stricken Tuesday evening at the Western Union office, where he had been Night Chief for many years. Mr. McCarthy was born in County Kerry, Ireland, fifty-nine years ago, coming to this country with his parents when seven years old. For over thirty years he had been a resident of Louisville, a loyal Catholic, a true friend and devoted husband, loved and respected by all who knew him. The extent to which he was held was most certainly manifested by the large number who called to tender sympathy to the bereaved wife and family and pray for the repose of his soul. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus, and in his soulless Council has lost one of its most loyal and ardent workers. By the death of Patrick McCarthy the Kentucky Irish American suffers the loss of a true friend, a friend who never grew weary of the work of his country. The administration of his estate is being handled by the Catholics of his acquaintance. Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Mary Devitt McCarthy; a son, Eugene A. McCarthy, of Louisville, and a daughter, Mrs. Dennis J. Ryan, of Terre Haute; and also a brother, Daniel McCarthy, of this city, and two sisters residing in Ohio. The funeral was held Monday morning with solemn requiem high mass at St. Philip Neri's church, when Rev. Father Ackermann delivered a feeling discourse and paid high tribute to the life and worth of his friend and parishioner.

ALUMNAE REUNION.

The alumnae of the Sacred Heart Commercial School held its annual meeting and reception Sunday afternoon at the school hall, Seventeenth and Broadway. There was a splendid attendance, and Rev. Father Patrick Walsh, the pastor, made a short but happy address, in which he expressed his appreciation of the good work of those who had graduated from the school and now hold positions in some of the best offices in the city. After the business of the alumnae had been transacted a delightful musical programme was rendered and refreshments served. This school is unsurpassed and its commercial department ranks among the first in the city and State.

IRELAND'S GLORY A CERTAINTY

Rousing and enthusiastic was the reception accorded Rev. Father J. J. Fitzgerald, pastor of St. Leo's church, Highland Park, at the meeting of Division 4, Ancient Order of Hibernians, Monday evening in Bertrand Hall. Father Fitzgerald is a big favorite among the members of the order and especially among the membership comprising the Limerick division, and when it was announced last week that he would be their guest a full attendance was the result. President John H. Hennessy presided over the meeting and after a short business session Rev. Father J. T. Keely, chaplain of the division, introduced the guests of honor as a friend of the order and a close friend of the Dominican fathers.

In his opening remarks Father Fitzgerald paid quite a tribute to the division and the close relationship between the members and the priests attached to St. Louis Bertrand's church, stating that wherever there was found a union of the order and friars, as in the olden days, it assured well for all. Father Fitzgerald then discussed the present situation in Ireland and said above all that no credit must be placed in the stories coming through our daily press, as they are doctored by England, and England contaminates and controls many of our leading organs. The speaker deplored the revolution of the Sinn Fein party as they were in a hopeless minority, but complimented them for their bravery and the cause for which they fought, and although they were defeated the cause for which they fought would be followed. The fact was cited that the English Government had consistently followed its brutal course as in the past, shooting down the Sinn Fein leaders in cold blood, the executions being nothing short of cold-blooded murder, as the trials were followed every sentence of the word. Father Fitzgerald also predicted that Ireland's glory was to come and roused his audience to the highest pitch of enthusiasm when he said that it would come despite treason, rebellion and English bayonets. The fact was cited that the English Government was not to be admired and that the latter in his role of a recruiter for England was a traitor to his country. Very Rev. Father Crowley, Prior of St. Louis Bertrand's, was present following Father Fitzgerald said that he believed that the course laid down by Daniel O'Connell was the proper method to pursue in securing home rule and self-government for Ireland. The speaker further said that in justification of his opinion must be considered that Ireland could do nothing by real force, being at the mercy of England, with its powerful navy, and that she must enlist the support of the whole world in forcing England to give her justice and that the great weapon of public opinion must be the means used by Ireland to achieve that end. Following Father Crowley's talk a smoker was held and before the meeting adjourned a motion duly seconded and carried was passed by a rising vote to make Father Fitzgerald a member of the order and enlisted as a member of Division 4. Father Fitzgerald responded, thanking the division for this testimonial of their appreciation of his visit and promised to aid the division and order at all times in any way possible. The reverend speaker's two stories of "the man from Limerick" and "wireless telegraph" in Ireland brought down the house.

AGED WOMAN DEAD.

Mrs. Margaret Reilly, ninety years old, died Tuesday morning at the home of her son-in-law, John R. Shadburn, Howard Park, Jeffersonville. Mrs. Reilly was born in Ireland, coming to this country when a young girl, and in Louisville was married to Patrick Reilly, who died in 1865. Thirteen children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Reilly, the only survivor being Mrs. Catherine Shadburn, with whom her mother made her home. There are two sisters, Mrs. Ella Pulford, of Louisville, mother of Capt. Edward Pulford, of the police department, and Mrs. Nancy McMahon, of Jeffersonville, mother of Mrs. W. R. Cheney. There are six grandchildren. The funeral was held Thursday morning from St. Augustine's church, Rev. Father Halpin conducting the solemn obsequies. The body was brought to Louisville and laid beside the husband in St. John's cemetery.

Mary and Elizabeth Hospital during the month of Mary and at the request of different clergymen and Sisters Father Crane agreed to publish same for the benefit of the public. It will be on sale the latter part of next week at Rogers Book Company and at the hospital.

CARRANZA PROMISES.

It must be evident to every one that Carranza has no intention of carrying out his promises for religious liberty and an honest government in Mexico, remarks the Sacramento Herald. He has endorsed every outrage against the church and has not in a single instance done anything to stop the destruction of churches and the outrages against the clergy and religious. It is not to the credit of the American Government that it stands behind a government, even though it be a nominal government, of that character.

REPORTS GARBLED.

It would be well to remind our readers that they take the reports of the trial of Sir Roger Casement which appear in the daily press with a big grain of salt. As far as we can judge these reports are garbled in a manner to make Sir Roger appear in the worst possible light, and incidentally to lead Americans into the belief that any fate he may be called upon to meet will be no more than he deserves, thus poisoning the minds of Americans against him at the outset. We regret to be obliged to say this, but unfortunately our newspapers in their pro-British zeal seem to have abandoned the elementary principles of justice and fair play.

ASQUITH IN IRELAND.

The coming of the British Premier to Dublin at such a time as the present is something so unusual that it deserves more than passing notice. It is true, as the Advocate says, Premier Asquith has always been a home ruler, but he has been none the less an astute politician, and his visit to Ireland has undoubtedly been inspired by the same motive that impelled him to take over the military portfolio at the time of the Curragh meeting; that is, it is an effort to deprive irreconcilable Unionists of the party advantage which they otherwise may glean from the situation. Besides, Asquith is well aware that the powerful provincial newspapers do not quite approve of the harshness with which the Irish patriots have been treated, and he wants to place the blame for such treatment where it in greater part belongs, namely, on the shoulders of his Tory colleagues in the Cabinet. At any rate, Asquith's visit to Dublin means that he intends to put the home rule act into effect in spite of the croakings of those who insist that the measure has been killed for good by the explosion of patriotism in the Irish capital.

ENGLAND'S MISTAKE.

England is probably sorry now that she suspended the operation of the home rule bill for Ireland until after the war. All the white parts of the British empire enjoyed self-government save Catholic Ireland, and yet after such unjust treatment she was expected to shed her blood generously for those who had almost bled her to death.

The existing Government is looked upon as powerful, but as neither just, capable or benign. It is obeyed as a huge superincumbent force, and many men advocate a tranquil lying down beneath it for fear the huge claws of the monster should penetrate the skin and tear the ribs; but as to any obedience of the heart, judgment of conscience, that is long since out of date and flown to the limbo of dead vanities. The result is that, holding Ireland only by force, England shall hold it so long as that force continues, and for not one hour longer. If there was any tolerable nucleus of strength around which the country could rally with a reasonable hope of success, or even of making a decent struggle, England would hold in Ireland no more than the measure of her encampments. As the Pittsburgh Catholic asserts, England may surround the Irish people with fleets and armies, but she has no hold upon them than have the inhabitants of Crim-Tartary.

RECENT DEATHS.

The funeral of Mrs. Anna Cummins took place Tuesday afternoon from the Cathedral. She was eighty-two years old and resided with her daughter, Mrs. Ophelia Mobley, in the Pope building. Infirmities of age were the cause of her death.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Norris, 912 East Market street, mourn the death of their twelve-year-old daughter Ella, who died Monday the victim of diphtheria. The funeral was held Tuesday morning, with burial in St. Michael's cemetery. To the bereaved parents many friends offer their sympathy.

Wednesday morning the funeral of Mrs. Bertha Louise Weiss was held from St. Martin's church, many sorrowing friends attending the requiem mass. Deceased was the wife of Daniel Weiss and the daughter of Mrs. Henrietta Burch, 1111 Hamilton avenue. Besides her husband she leaves an infant daughter.

Mrs. Mary Lawless, beloved wife of Thomas Lawless, died Saturday night at her home, 1834 Lytle. She was twenty-six years old and had suffered a long illness, which was borne with Christian fortitude. The funeral took place Tuesday morning from St. Patrick's church, attended by many mourning friends and relatives.

Death made desolate on Tuesday the home of Oscar and Anna O'Rourke Montgomery, 635 East F street, when their beloved five-year-old child, Oscar Harold, was called from this world. The funeral was held Thursday morning from St. Philip Neri church, attended by many sympathizing friends of the bereaved parents.

VISITED OLD FRIENDS.

Hon. Bruce L. Kremer, of Butte, Mont., Secretary of the Democratic National Committee, accompanied by his secretary, James L. Riley, spent several days in Louisville this week, arriving on Monday at the residence of his mother, Mrs. Charles Kremer. Mr. Kremer and his secretary were on their way to St. Louis to open headquarters and took rooms at the Sealbach, where they were called upon by leading Democrats, including Frank McGrath.

Mr. Kremer is a native of Louisville, a son of Charles Kremer, for years Wharfmaster. His brothers are George, Charles, Baxter and Cal Kremer, all well known citizens. The selection of Bruce Kremer as Secretary of the National Committee is a very high honor. Mr. Riley, who accompanied Mr. Kremer to Louisville, is Chairman of the Democratic City Central Committee of Butte and has made a fine record in that position. Butte has been made Democratic since his election.

JUBILEE AT ST. JOSEPH'S.

Rev. Father Wilberding and the people of St. Joseph's church, East Washington street, have cause for rejoicing over the impressive and magnificent celebration of their golden jubilee, which began Sunday morning and continued until Thursday night. Taking part in the religious ceremonies on the first three days were Right Rev. Denis O'Donoghue, Bishop of the diocese, and the Rev. Fathers David Kersting, Vincent Trost, Silas Lichtfeldt, Joseph Klein, Daniel Driscoll, Vice General James P. Cronin, Richard Wurth, Pacificus Winterheld, Eugene Buttermann, Andrew Thome, Otto Staebule and Cyril George, a number of whom had formerly been identified with the parish. The programme printed last week was fully carried out. St. Joseph's church was founded in 1866, but the original building is now used as a school and school hall. The present church was built in 1883. Rev. Father Alex. Wilberding is the present pastor.

ENTER INSURANCE FIELD.

Charles F. McDewitt and John J. Kennedy, two of our best known and popular young men, have entered the insurance field and have connected themselves with the firm of Reutlinger & Stith. Mr. McDewitt will make a specialty of writing fire insurance, but in addition will handle casualty, liability and automobile insurance. Mr. Kennedy will feature the casualty end of the business, but will also write liability and automobile insurance. Messrs. McDewitt and Kennedy are two hustling and enterprising young men with a host of friends and boosters who wish them success in their new line of endeavor.

BISHOP'S BIRTHDAY.

The Right Rev. John Ward, Bishop of Leavenworth, was fifty-nine years old Tuesday, when he was the recipient of many happy congratulations. Bishop Ward was ordained July 17, 1884, and was appointed Bishop in November, 1910, his consecration taking place on Washington's birthday, February 22, 1911.

Chattanooga, formerly of Louisville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Adele H. Bundschu, to Ivor C. Bouchard, of Chicago. The wedding will take place the first part of June. Miss Bundschu has visited relatives and friends of this city many times since the family moved to Chattanooga.

ALTAR SOCIETY PARTY.

The ladies of the Altar Society of Holy Cross church will entertain with a euchre and lotto party, to be given next Wednesday evening in Holy Cross Hall, Thirty-second and Broadway, to which they invite their friends. Many handsome prizes have been donated, among them some gold pieces. The proceeds will go toward paying the debt on Holy Cross school building.

FATHER CAVANAUGH WANTED.

The Rev. Father John Cavanaugh, C. S. C., President of Notre Dame University at South Bend, Ind., and a member of the Indiana State Centennial Commission, has been invited to address a public meeting in New Albany in the near future in the interest of the New Albany Centennial, September 14. The date of the meeting will be fixed to suit the convenience of Father Cavanaugh. County Chairman T. E. Crawford and Postmaster John Cody extended the invitation.

TRINITY'S ALLEYS OPENED.

Another epoch in the history of Trinity Council was celebrated Saturday night, when the four new bowling alleys were opened. A large number of the members were present to assist in the celebration. All who have seen the alleys since the opening concede them to be second to none in the city. After a few remarks made by the President the first ball was delivered and the games were on. From the steady patronage and attendance shown by the members, who are highly enthusiastic over the new addition, this feature should prove to be the chief attraction around the club house.

THE FINAL DAY.

The final day of the Churchill Downs spring meeting will be ushered in this afternoon with a continuation of the brilliant sport that has marked the session thus far. The closing day feature, the classic Kentucky Oaks, with $2,500 added, six furlongs, one mile and a sixteenth, will be run, and from present indications this contest will result in one of the most brilliant contests in the long history of this event, which is as old as the Derby, and has been run off every spring at the Downs track without a single break from 1875 to the present year. There will be six other good races on the card.

GREAT TURF EVENT.

Everything at Douglas Park is ready for the spring meeting, which opens Monday with the Highland Park Handicap as the featured race. With such an event as the great $15,000 Kentucky Handicap, to be decided June 3, in which engaged track performers that have earned renown, not only on American race tracks, but on the fashionable courses of foreign lands, there seems no doubt but that Douglas Park will this spring hold the banner meeting of its career as a running track. On Decoration day, Tuesday, May 30, the Memorial Handicap, with $2,000 added, at six furlongs, is the big feature race, and on Saturday, June 10, the Speculation stakes, with $1,500 added, one mile and one-sixteenth, will be run off. On the final day of the meeting is decided the Spring Trial stakes, with $2,500 added, for two-year-olds at five furlongs, an event that in money value to the winner is only exceeded by two other races run off in Kentucky throughout the entire year. On the days that stake events are not on the card at Douglas Park there are liberal handicaps, and the only club the Colony have not met thus far. Leaving Indianapolis they then journeyed to Toledo for a four-game series with Bresnahan's club, and counting the Indianapolis and Toledo games as part of the road trip Clymer's hopes can still more than break even on their away-from-home games. Edward Edelen, one of our local enthusiasts, sends the following prediction to the Kentucky Irish American as to the outcome of the race: Louisville 1, Minneapolis 2, Indianapolis 3 and Toledo 4.

CHANCE FOR FANS.

The local baseball fans will be given an opportunity again this afternoon and tomorrow to give our boys the once-over and at the same time also inspect "Rudy" Huswit's Columbus team, which has been the big surprise of the league thus far, and contrary to the opinion of many has given no promise of dropping out of contention for first place. The showing of the Columbus team reflects credit on the managerial ability of our former Louisville boy and it also augurs well for the prosperity of the league, as Columbus with a good team ranks second to none as far as attendance

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

There are 500 members of the Philadelphia County Board.
There will be no division meeting next week, the fifth week of the month.

The national convention is expected to bring fully 100,000 visitors to Boston.
The County Board is planning for the State convention to be held here in September.

The membership contest of Division 2 of Syracuse is bringing in many candidates.
There are thirty-six divisions of the Ladies' Auxiliary in Pittsburgh and Allegheny county.

Hibernian divisions of Syracuse and vicinity are engaged in an exciting "forty-five" contest.
The meeting of Division 4 Monday evening was the liveliest in the long history of that division.

The Brooklyn County Board has selected Rev. Father Cleary as a delegate to the national convention.
Cardinal O'Connell will direct the mass at Holy Cross Cathedral at the opening of the national convention.

Thomas Heslin, William Reilly, John Baldwin and John Brady were obligated at the meeting of Division 4.

There will be no parade in Boston
during the national convention meeting. The weather will be too warm.

The Hibernian Social Club and Ladies' Auxiliary are well pleased over the success of their dance Monday evening.

National President McLaughlin
says one of the most gratifying aspects of the times is the decline of religious bigotry.

During the Forty Hours' devotions at St. Patrick's church this week the Hibernians of Toledo received holy communion in a body.
The Ladies' Auxiliary of Indianapolis gave a shower Friday night in honor of Miss Olive Springston,
a member who will become a June bride.

Hibernians from all sections of Brooklyn united with the Queens County divisions in the silver jubilee celebration of St. John's Hospital, Long Island.

Tom Dignan says that Councilman Mike McDermott was under the seat while traveling through Jeffersonville on his way to the C.
K. and L. of A. convention.

More than 300 enjoyed themselves to the utmost at the literary evening of the Ladies' Auxiliary at Minneapolis last week. Ex-National President Regan delivered the address.

The New York County Board has arranged for a memorial mass at All Saints' church on May 30 for the repose of the souls of those who forfeited their lives for Irish liberty.

The Hibernians of America are on sympathy with those who are being persecuted because they loved their native land and sought to put her in her place among the nations of the earth.

Members of the Ancient order and the Hibernian Rifles of Columbus, Ohio, made a very creditable showing when they received holy communion at St. Patrick's church on Sunday morning.

The Hibernian Knights of Louisville were one of the fine military bodies that attended the last national convention in Boston, held sixteen years ago. Col. P. J. Breen was the Captain.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Pittsburgh will erect a monument to the memory of Miss Margaret Melia,
who was for fifteen years the President and the real founder of the order in Allegheny county.

Mrs. Anna Lynch, who had been seriously ill, was heartily welcomed when she resumed the President's chair of the Ladies' Auxiliary last week at Syracuse. The degrees were given all initiated the past year, after which refreshments were served.

BISHOP M'FAUL.
Yesterday was the thirty-ninth anniversary of the ordination of the Right Rev. James M. McFaul, Bishop of Trenton, N. J. He was ordained by Bishop Corrigan, the second Bishop of Newark, who succeeded Cardinal McCloskey as Archbishop of New York. Bishop Mc-Faul was consecrated October 18, 1894. He spent the day quietly and without any special observance.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Late News That Will Interest
Members Here and Elsewhere.

The Wisconsin membership is over 10,200.
The next Ohio State convention
will be held in Sandusky.

Last week at Auburn, N. Y., fifteen candidates were given the second degree.

Fond du Lac initiated sixty-eight new members, and now has the second largest council in Wisconsin.
Thirty-two officers and men of the United States navy are members of Brownson Council, Philadelphia.

Plans have been perfected for conferring the fourth degree on a class of 300 at Milwaukee next Tuesday.

Candidates from the sixty-one Indiana councils are expected for the fourth degree initiation at Indianapolis tomorrow.

Illinois Knights will place two stone columns at the entrance to Starved Rock Park in memory of Catholic pioneers in America.

Sixty candidates received the degrees Sunday at Lima, Ohio. The preceding Sunday forty-two were initiated into the Tiffin council.

ELABORATE EXERCISES.
Fifty thousand persons attended an open air mass at the Boston navy yard Sunday in memory of deceased soldiers, sailors and marines. The service was arranged by the Department of Massachusetts' Army and Navy Union and was preceded by a military and civic parade, in which many organizations participated. Cardinal O'Connell was present at the mass,
which was celebrated by the Right
Rev. Monsignor John B. Peterson,
President of St. John's Seminary, assisted by members of the seminary faculty and student body. The sermon was preached by the Rev.
Charles Lyons, S. J., President of Boston College. The altar, which was erected at the extreme end of the parade ground, was banked with growing plants and cut flowers, while the masts of battleships and other naval craft loomed in the background. At the conclusion of the mass the congregation sang
"The Star Spangled Banner."

HINTS ON STYLE.
Fine handkerchief linens are becoming scarce.
The fad for dotted Swiss seems to have passed.
Cape collars, fichus and roll collars are all popular.
Ginghams have grown in grace
from season to season.
Taffeta is still one of the most popular materials for bathing suits.
Tub frocks and cotton frocks are exceedingly good looking this year.

There will be a tremendous amount of white worn this season.
Plaine chemisettes of organdie with modish cape or rolling collar are good.
Pretty chemisettes and under-blouses with and without sleeves are now displayed.

Summer furs are foolish, their appropriateness being rare even among fashion faddists.
The long, rather full sleeve caught into some sort of cuff or waistband is still a favorite.

For the simplest of thin cotton frocks all of the old favorites are used—lawns, chambrays, gingham, voiles and the rest.

WRONG DOERS.
When a man sins, does he sin as an Irishman, a German, or an American, as a Democrat or as a Republican? He sins as a sinner, and not on account of his religious or political affiliations. How many seek to taint the whole class with the crime of an individual? This is a mean trait, characteristic of small minds and bigoted people. Falsehood, dishonesty, drunkenness, bribery, criminality of all kinds belong to the culpits, to the individuals, not to their nation, nor to their party or to their church.—Cleveland Universe.

ROB POOR BOX.

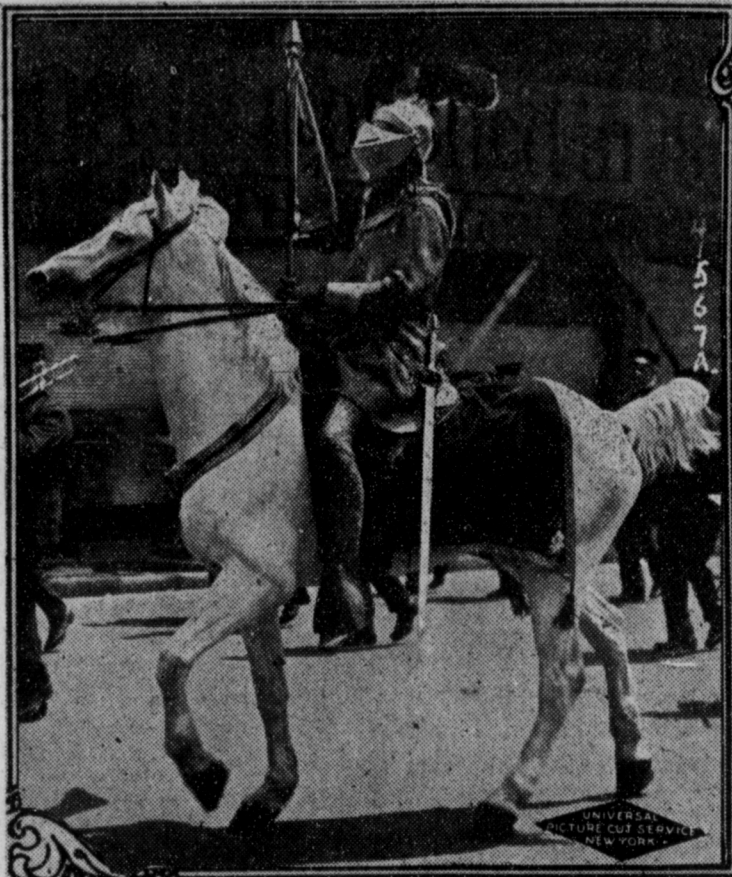

Monday morning the poor box for the deposit of charity offerings at St. Charles church was broken open and robbed of its contents, thought to be about $10. A good description of the thief was given the detectives by Mrs. Hale, who saw him enter the church while she was engaged at the altar. Any one who would rob the church poor box deserves most severe punishment.

ST. CECILIA'S.

Tomorrow morning at the 7:30 o'clock mass at St. Cecilia's church a large class of children will receive their first holy communion. In the evening at 7:30 o'clock the Right Rev. Bishop O'Donoghue will administer the sacrament of confirmation. For some time past the children have been undergoing preparation and instruction and the day will be a memorable one for the congregation.

CONFIRMATION EXERCISES.

Confirmation exercises will be held in St. Leo's church on Ascension day, June 1, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. Right Rev. Bishop O'Donoghue will confer the sacrament and a class of twenty-five is being prepared.

MYSTERY CLEARED.

Mystery surrounding the disappearance of Miss Beatrice Mary Harrell, who scored a decided "hit" last week as leader of the chorus in Mackin Council's production of "Tin Soldiers," was cleared Tuesday when word came from Detroit that she had become the bride of Chester Sparks, formerly of this city. They were married Monday morning by the Rev. Father Doherty at St. Vincent de Paul's church in Detroit. The first news of the wedding was contained in a telegram to the girl's mother, Mrs. R. W. Harrell, announcing that she had become Mrs. Chester Sparks. Mrs. Sparks is nineteen years old and was a student in the classical department of the University of Louisville. She was graduated from the Louisville Girls' High School four years ago. Mr. Sparks was employed in the general office of the L. and N. railroad, but went some time ago to accept a better position with a railroad in Detroit. There was no objection to the marriage and the couple are expected to soon visit this city.

TRINITY COUNCIL.

At the meeting Monday night Trinity Council, Y. M. C. I., was highly honored by having present with them the Supreme Grand President, Robert T. Burke, who expressed his gratification over the excellent work being done by Trinity Council, especially on the successful membership campaign just closed. In addressing the members of the council Mr. Burke chose as his subject "The Workman's Compensation Act," which was instructive and entertaining, as it more or less affects everyone. A more appropriate time for the Supreme President to address the council could not have occurred as the membership campaign, which was brought to a close last week, was the most successful ever conducted by Trinity for a long time. The standing of the teams was given out as follows: Boosters, Progressives, Hohenzollers, Hustlers, Perseverance and Stars. The winning team, the Boosters, was captained by Ed Zehnder, who is one of Trinity's most faithful workers and stands ready at all times to lend his assistance. The other members of his team were Louis Clephas, George Hoffman, Thomas A. Murphy and Bernard Gratz. This having been a voluntary membership campaign no prize was awarded by the council. The winners, however, will be honored by the council having a group photograph taken of the team and placed permanently in the club house, at the same time furnishing each member thereof with a copy. The prize offered by a prominent attorney in town will be awarded the following Monday after the initiation, which takes place on June 5. Arrangements are being perfected to have a smoker for the new candidates and members on June 12. The election for Recording Secretary will take place on next Monday night.

EUCHE AND LOTTO.

Monday night the ladies of the East End Golden Rule Club will give a euchre party in the school hall, 526 Lampton street, for the benefit of St. Peter Claver school. On Tuesday night they will entertain with lotto, and as there will be refreshments and handsome prizes each evening the ladies look for a large attendance. The cause is a most deserving one.

JOLLY NIGHT.

The Columbia Athletic Club has arranged for an evening of jollity for its members and their friends Monday night at the club house, 621 East St. Catherine street. The programme will open with a cabaret show, when Forest Thompson and other well known entertainers will provide amusement. There will be dancing in the open air pavilion and a good time for the young people. In case of rain the entertainment will be postponed to the following Tuesday night.

ORPHAN PICNIC.

All who had the good fortune to be present at the meeting in the K. of C. Hall Monday evening, on the occasion of the great gathering for the purpose of furthering the interests of the Fourth of July picnic for the benefit of the orphans, were edified at the devotion manifested in this great charitable project. Every one was full of enthusiasm and their words rang true as they told of the steady progress being made in the work in hand. It is evident that foundations are being laid for a splendid financial success, and that the expectations of eclipsing even the brilliant affair of last year will be probably realized. The committee reported that they had inaugurated the solicitation of donations and many encouraging results were obtained. The Apron Committee, through Mrs. E. G. Netherland, exhibited a beautiful quilt, the work of the girls at St. Vincent's, which will be raffled off at the picnic. Tickets for the various branches and others will be distributed at the next meeting, and all who wish to help in their distribution are asked to come and receive their quota for distribution. The assemblage was most happily entertained by Rev. William Gausepohl, who headed a delegation of thirty members from his parish. He gave many reasons why the Catholics of Louisville should rally to the support of this most worthy cause. Thomas W. Tarry also spoke enthusiastically of the affair, pledging his efforts and zeal to aid in the general result. Every Monday evening an inspiring meeting will be held in the K. of C. Hall on behalf of this charity, and every one who comes may be assured of a most hearty welcome.

FONTAINE FERRY.

A programme appealing to all tastes through its variety is promised at the Fontaine Ferry Park Theater commencing with the matinee Sunday. Headlining this bill will be Willa Holt Wakefield, "The Lady of Optimism," in a repertoire of new song sayings and stories. Miss Wakefield possesses a wonderful personality and this is radiated over her audience by the soothing and appealing rendition of her songs. A potpourri of wit, bright chatter and pantomime is in prospect with Helen Hamilton and Jack Barnes on the new bill in their skit, "Just Fun." Miss Catherine Powell will offer a repertoire of select classical dances and Frank Noher and Selene Kappel will entertain with some novel roller skating, and Ed Morton will sing and do comedy. Saturday the big sanitary swimming pool opens for the season, and if the weather is what the management predicts an overwhelming crowd will be on hand to take a plunge into the cooling depths. As was the custom last season, bathers will be admitted to the park free at all time.

EUCHE AND LOTTO.

The next of the series of euchre and lotto will be given Friday afternoon and evening by the St. Louis Bertrand Church Debt and Building Fund in Bertrand Hall, Sixth street, near Oak, the games to be called at 2:30 and 8:15 o'clock. The committee in charge of these affairs make a specialty of starting the games at the advertised time, this innovation proving a delightful treat to the followers of this style of entertainment.

Many a man is going to ask, "How in the world can they do it?" The answer is simple enough. We went to four of our best makers; we told them about this Celebration Sale; that we were going out to establish a record and wanted to offer some hitherto unheard-of bargains. In short, we said "Come across." They came across handsomely with the result that

The suits are here—1,100 strong—crisp new suits out of New York City less than a week.

Of course these good clothing makers had an "eye" for future business, and our men friends are going to receive full benefit of their liberality. For instance, here is what they may expect:

Standard $12.50 Suits at $6.75
Standard $15.00 Suits at $8.75
Standard $20.00 Suits at $10.75

There are brand new Suits of worsted serge, cheviot tweeds and homespuns. The colors range from dark mixed silk-and-worsted to medium and light patterned Suits. There are Suits for stout and slim men and medium figures. We'd like to see the man we can't fit or please in this sale.

Now for extra good measure we are going to sell two hundred Men's Fine Hand-tailored Suits—clothing that a banker would be proud to put on—and these Suits will be marked at $14.75

These are the kind of Suits you demand and expect to get when you go into a clothing store and lay down $25.00. They are going in a jiffy; you can bank on that, because never before have such garments been offered at this price.

150 Palm Beach Suits$4.95

The Suits are regularly priced at $7.50 and $8.50. There are grays, blacks and white stripes and mixtures.

Can you imagine a better clothing sale? When we say that every suit is guaranteed and the values are also guaranteed as stated, we mean that we will refund the purchase price to any man that feels he did not get his money's worth.
